To-day he will put in a good hard session of road work and rope skipat his old quarters-Johnson's road house, on Jerome avenue-with his old handler, Charlie Mayhood, in charge of the camp.

To-morrow Terry's regular boxing will begin. His chief sparring partners will be his brother Phillie and Martin Canole. The latter, by the way, although not very well known right in this city, is a first-cass fighting man among the lightweights himself. He'll make Terry go some with
